

Treataware to host two 'Chin Wags' during Mardi Gras

Created 28 Jan 2010 - 4:12pm

As part of Mardi Gras Festival celebrations this year, Treataware at NAPWA is putting on two CHIN WAG chat shows, one in the east of town, at the Cambridge Hotel in Surry Hills, and one in the west, at the Clarence in Petersham. Positive people, their friends, partners, carers and other interested parties are all welcome.

CHIN WAG, hosted by Vanessa Wagner and Nurse Nancy, is a chat show all about HIV Treatments and Healthy HIV Living. Vanessa and Nancy engage a panel of health professionals, and encourage audience participation as they question and discuss aspects of living with HIV now and in the future, Tips and tricks abound; a buffet dinner and a glass of wine are provided.

Fun and informative, they are free events, but booking is essential.
