

NAPWA submission to HREOC inquiry

Created 10 May 2005 - 12:07pm

NAPWA has made a written submission to the National Inquiry on Employment and Disability, which is examining the barriers faced by people with disabilities in seeking work, and issues for employers in recruiting [1]The act of signing up participants into a study. Generally this process involves evaluating a participant with respect to the eligibility criteria of the study and going through the informed consent process., retaining or fully utilising employees with disabilities.

NAPWA's submission responds to a number of key issues surrounding employment for people with long-term illnesses such as HIV/AIDS and the barriers to workplace participation faced by people with HIV/AIDS.

You can download a copy of the submission below.

For further information about the Inquiry, visit the website [2]. For further information about NAPWA's submission, contact John Rule in our Sydney office.

Attachment	Size	Type
NAPWA submission to HREOC inquiry [3]	263.93 KB	 PDF

- discrimination
- human rights
- submission
- Work and employment

Links:

[1] <http://www.napwa.org.au/glossary/term/489>

[2] http://www.hreoc.gov.au/disability_rights/employment_inquiry/index.htm

[3] <http://www.napwa.org.au/files/2005-4-hreoc-submission.pdf>