

Australian Federation of Disability Organisations (AFDO)

Created 22 May 2009 - 12:39pm

AFDO is the primary national organisation that advocates to Government for the interests of all people with disability in Australia.

AFDO's mission is to champion the rights of people with disability and help them participate fully in Australian life. Membership is open to national and state organisations of people with disability.

- membership-based organisation